

PRIVACY POLICY

1. INTRODUCTION

SCHILLING INC. (hereinafter referred to as "Schilling") is committed to protecting your personal information. The purpose of this Privacy Policy is to outline how we deal with any personal information you provide to us which is either collected by us through this Site ("www.schillinginc.com") (this "Site") and/or via the services we provide to you.

Schilling is the controller of your personal information via our Site and the services we provide pursuant to the EU General Data Protection Regulation.

Please read this Privacy Policy to understand how Schilling may process your personal information via our Site and/or through the services we provide to you.

Any external links to other sites are clearly identifiable as such, and we are not responsible for the content or the privacy policies of these other sites.

2. COLLECTION OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We may process your personal information when you submit it to us in the following ways:

>> Communications via our Site: We collect personal information when you provide it to us through communications via our Site. This includes where you have contacted us through the "Contact Us" page on our Site and similar situations in which you have chosen to provide the information to us, including for customer services support.

>> Products or Services you request: Where you request a good or service from us, we will collect your personal information to process your request and otherwise contact you following a purchase.

We may ask you to provide personal information, such as your e-mail address, name, work address, or telephone number. In order to access some Schilling services, you will be asked to sign in with an e-mail address and password.

>> Careers: We also process your personal information if you apply to work at Schilling or at any of the Schilling group of companies via our careers pages at www.schillinginc.com/careers/.

The type of information we may process about you may include contact details, personal details, education and training details (including qualification, attendance at educational establishments and training received), and employment details (including details of previous employment roles).

>> Interaction with our Site and use of our services: when you use our Site, we will automatically receive technical information, including your interaction with our Site, the site you came from, search engine(s) and keywords you used to find our Site, the pages you view within our Site, type of browser you use, your browser add-ons, your browser's width and height, IP address, browser type and language, access times and referring site addresses. To offer you a consistent and personalized experience in your interactions with us, information collected through one service we provide may be combined with information obtained through other services. For example, we may use services from other companies that enable us to derive a general geographic area based on your IP address in order to customize certain services to your geographic area.

USE OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

Schilling processes your personal information to enable us to perform the contract entered into between you and us, to ensure compliance with local legal and regulatory requirements and for the purposes of our legitimate business interests, including the following:

>> to enable us to carry out our obligations arising from any contracts and to provide you with the information, products and services that you request from us;

>> to operate and improve our Site and services including making them easier to use by eliminating the need for you to repeatedly enter the same information;

>> to enable us to respond to an inquiry or other request you make when you contact us via our Site, including for customer service support;

>> to provide you with more effective customer service;

>> performing research and analysis aimed at improving our products, services and technologies;

>> displaying content and advertising that are customized to your interests and preferences;

>> to communicate with you to provide you information about other products and services we offer that are similar to those that you have already purchased or enquired about as we feel may interest you, as described in the "Marketing" section below;

>> when you receive newsletters or promotional e-mail from us, to determine whether the e-mail has been opened and which links you click in order to provide you more focused e-mail communications or other information; and >> to enable us to process and consider your application to join Schilling.

MARKETING

We may contact you to provide you with information about products and services similar to those which were the subject of a previous sale or negotiations of a sale to you. You may be contacted by us, Schilling affiliated companies, or by one of our selected third parties, in each case where you have consented to receive these communications.

You may opt out of receiving our marketing communications at any time by contacting us at www.schillinginc.com/contact/ or by using the unsubscribe link in any of our communications.

We will continue to contact you for non-marketing related purposes where we need to issue a field corrective or safety notice, or to where we need to send certain information to you under a legal, regulatory, or ethical requirement.

SHARING OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We may share your personal information with:

>> other groups companies to enable us to carry out our obligations arising from any contracts and/or to provide you with the information, products and services that you request from us;

>> our service providers that we engage to provide services for us to help us further our business objectives. Where we provide your personal information to third party services providers, they are required to keep your personal information confidential and secure, and must only use your personal information as instructed by us;

>> some Schilling services may be co-branded and offered in conjunction with another company. If you register for or use such services, both Schilling and the other company may receive information collected in conjunction with the co-branded services; and >> our distributors, business partners, or other service providers, including for marketing purposes or where you have chosen, and therefore have consented, to share your personal information through various features and functionality provided via our Site.

We may also disclose your personal information (a) where required to respond to authorized requests from government authorities or where required by law; (b) where we are required by law, we may also disclose your personal information where it is necessary to protect the rights, property or safety of Schilling and our group companies, our products and services and our customers, distributors or business partners including the enforcement of our agreements, this Privacy Policy or other agreements or to prevent or take action regarding illegal activities or fraud, situations involving potential threats to the safety of any person or as evidence in litigation.

SECURITY OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

Schilling is committed to protecting the security of your personal information. We will take all reasonable steps (including appropriate technical and organizational measures) to ensure your personal information is processed securely to protect the confidentiality, integrity and availability of your personal information in accordance with this Privacy Policy. The nature of the internet is such that we cannot guarantee or warrant the security of any information you transmit to us via the internet and any transmission is at your own risk.

If a password is used to help protect your accounts and personal information, it is your responsibility to keep your password confidential. You should update your password periodically to help reduce the risk of unauthorized access to your account with us. When you do, you should strengthen your password with the combination of uppercase and lowercase letters, numbers, punctuation and other symbols. Do not share this information with anyone. If you are sharing a computer with anyone you should always log out before leaving a site or service to protect access to your information from subsequent users.

STORING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

Personal information collected through our Site and services will be stored on servers located in the U.S. It may also be processed by our affiliates, including in the U.S., or by one of our service providers. This includes individuals engaged in, among other things, the fulfillment of your order, administration of an enquiry or request you make via our Site or the provision of support services.

Some of the recipients of your personal information may be located in countries outside the EU/EEA that do not offer the same level of protection with regard to personal information as required in the EU/EEA and where there is no adequacy decision by the European Commission. In that case, we have implemented appropriate safeguards, to protect your personal information when it is transferred, including the execution of data transfer agreements with recipients of the information. For access to copies of these agreements please contact Schilling by email at info@schillinginc.com. We will process any request in line with any local laws and our policies and procedures.

Schilling will store your information for as long as we have to by law, and where there is no legal requirement, we will only store your personal information for two years.

COOKIES

Schilling uses cookies and similar technologies (together referred to as "cookies", unless otherwise stated) to provide you with an efficient experience in using our site.

A cookie is a small data file that is placed on your computer or mobile device by your web browser. Cookies cannot be used to run programs or deliver viruses to your computer. One of the primary purposes of cookies is to store your preferences and other information on your computer in order to save you time by eliminating the need to repeatedly enter the same information and to display your personalized content and appropriate advertising on your later visits to the Site.

We use cookies for a variety of purposes and to enhance your online experience, for example, to identify your device, distinguish you from other visitors, record your IP address and understand your use of our Site to determine the usefulness of our Site information and to see how effective our navigational structure is in helping you reach that information. We also use cookies to identify the name of the site from which you linked to our Site. We do not otherwise track any information about your use of other sites.

Here are some additional things you should know about our use of cookies:

>> you may encounter cookies from our third-party providers, that we have allowed on our Site that assist us with various aspects of our Site operations and services.

>> you also may encounter cookies from third parties on certain pages of the sites that we do not control and have not authorized. For example, if you view a web page posted as a link from our Site, there may be a cookie placed by that web page.

Our Site may use other similar technologies which contain electronic images known as web beacons – sometimes called single-pixel gifs – that may be used to assist in delivering cookies on our Site and allow us to count users who have visited those pages and to deliver co-branded services. We may include web beacons in promotional e-mail messages or our newsletters in order to determine whether messages have been opened and acted upon. Schilling may also employ web beacons from third parties in order to help us compile aggregated statistics regarding the effectiveness of our promotional campaigns or other operations of our sites. We prohibit web beacons on our Site from being used by third parties to collect or access your personal information.

TYPES OF COOKIES USED ON OUR SITE

We use various types of cookies, including session cookies, persistent cookies, local shared objects, pixels, gifs and other tracking technologies, session and persistent technologies, first and third-party cookies. Cookies can be persistent by remaining on your computer until you delete them or be based on your browsing session where they delete once you close your browser. First party cookies are used and controlled by us to provide services on our Site.

Our use of cookies falls into four categories:

Strictly necessary cookies: these are essential in order to enable you to move around our site and use its features. Without these cookies, the services you have asked for cannot be provided.

Performance cookies: also known as “analytical” cookies. These cookies allow us to recognize and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around our Site. For example, they allow us to understand which pages are visited most often, and if they get error messages from web pages. All information collected by these cookies is aggregated and therefore anonymous.

Functionality cookies: these cookies are necessary for our Site to operate and allow us to remember what choices you make and provide enhanced, more personal features. The information these cookies collect may be anonymized and they cannot track your browsing activity on other sites.

Advertising and marketing cookies: these cookies are used to send you advertising and marketing-related material tailored to you and your interests. They are also used to limit the number of times you see an advertisement as well as help measure the effectiveness of the advertising campaigns. They are usually placed by advertising networks with the site operator's permission. They remember that you have visited a site and this information is shared with other organizations such as advertisers.

We may change our use of cookies over time, but our use of cookies will generally fall into the above categories. Please visit this page regularly so that you are aware of any changes.

GOOGLE ANALYTICS

This Site uses Google Analytics to collect information about how users use the Site. The information generated by the cookie about your use of the Site will be transmitted to and stored by Google on servers in the United States. In case IP-anonymization is activated on this Site, your IP address will be partially used within the European Union or just in the European Economic Area if it is used by other parties. Only in exceptional cases will the full IP address be transferred to a Google server in the United States, and then shortened so it is only partially used there. The IP-anonymization is active on this Site.

Google will use this information on behalf of the operator of this Site for the purpose of analyzing your use of the Site, compiling reports on Site activity for Site operators and providing them other services relating to Site activity and internet usage. The IP address that your browser conveys within the scope of Google Analytics will not be associated with any other data held by Google. You may refuse the use of cookies by selecting the appropriate settings on your browser; please note, however, that if you do this you may not be able to use the full Site. You can also opt-out from being tracked by Google Analytics in the future by downloading and installing 'Google Analytics Opt-out Browser Add-on' for your current web browser: <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>.

As an alternative to the browser add-on, you can click this link in order to opt out from being tracked by Google Analytics within this Site in the future. An opt-out cookie will be stored on your device, which means that you will have to click this link again if you delete your cookies. You can find more information under the following link: <http://www.google.com/intl/en/privacypolicy.html>.

OPTING OUT OF COOKIES

You have the ability to accept or decline cookies. Most browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. If you choose to decline cookies, you may not be able to sign in or use other interactive features of the Site and services that depend on cookies. If you choose to accept cookies, you also have the ability to later delete cookies that you have accepted. If you choose to delete cookies, any settings and preferences controlled by those cookies will be deleted and may need to be recreated. If your browser settings are set up as 'Do Not Track', we will not use cookies and tracking technologies.

YOUR RIGHTS

You may inform us of any changes in your personal information, and in accordance with our obligations under applicable data protection laws we will update or delete your personal information accordingly. To find out what personal information we hold on you or to have your personal information updated, amended or removed from our database, please email your request to us via the "Contact Us" section on our Site.

Residents of the European Economic Area ('EEA'): You may have the right to: request (a) access to your personal information we hold about you; (b) request we correct any inaccurate personal information we hold about you; (c) request we delete any personal information we hold about you; (d) restrict the processing of personal information we hold about you; (e) object to the processing of personal information we hold about you; and/or (f) receive any personal information we hold about you in a structured and commonly used machine-readable format or have such personal information transmitted to another company.

For more information on your rights and its requirements, please see the information provided by the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/for-organisations/guide-to-the-general-data-protection-regulation-gdpr/individual-rights/right-of-access/> and
